

THE RECTORY

Christmas Table Booking Information

3 courses £30 per person

Pre-booked tables only. Pre-order required.

Our seasonal menu is a special 3 course set menu. This is the only menu available to booked tables during this period and we are not able to offer any alternatives to the choices given. Please make sure that all of your guests are happy with the menu options before making a booking.

Afternoon and evening sittings are available for our seasonal menu.
All tables will need to vacate two hours after the booked time.

A £10 per person non-refundable and non-transferable deposit is required to secure a booking.
Full prepayment is then required by Friday 17th November at the latest for all tables.

Bookings made after this date require full payment at the time of booking. Later additions to guest numbers will depend upon availability and may have to be refused.

Bookings are confirmed only when you have received our email confirmation.
Christmas tables may be seated in our downstairs restaurant. Large tables will be seated across adjacent tables.

Any changes or later additions to a booking can only be made by the party organiser and will be subject to availability.

Full payment (the £20 per person balance) and your complete pre-selection of menu choices is required by 17th November. This must be submitted on the preorder form that we provide to you and include the guest name with their choices alongside. No alternatives to the options shown are available and no changes can be made after this is submitted.

Failure to provide payment or preorder will result in the booking and deposit being forfeited.

All monies paid are non-refundable and non-transferable in the event of cancellation or forfeiture. If numbers reduce below the number booked then that part of the deposit or payment will be forfeited and cannot be reallocated at a later date.

Prompt seating at the time of the booking is essential, we recommend advising your guests to arrive at least 30 minutes before the booking time. The time you have booked for is the time at which your whole party should be ready.

All tables need to be relinquished a maximum of two hours after the booked time.

Drinks ordered and delivered at the table will be included on the table bill and cannot be paid for individually. A service charge of 10% will be added to drinks served at the table and one bill will be presented for payment at the end of the meal.

By making a booking you accept these booking conditions.
